

Sports	Cinema	World History	Art	Computers
100	100	100	100	100
200	200	200	200	200
300	300	300	300	300
400	400	400	400	400
500	500	500	500	500

They won the first Super Bowl

This town is home to Three Rivers Stadium

He broke Babe Ruth's
all-time home run record

This team has won the most
Stanley Cups

This colorful sail is only used downwind

He replaced Michael Keaton
as the lead in "Batman Forever"

This actor directed "Taxi Driver"

This movie about Mexican food was a hit in 1992

She sang about a sad song
about a merry little
Christmas

He wrote the screenplay for
"Citizen Kane"

This little dog belonged to Franklin Delano Roosevelt

He was Soviet premiere after Nikita Kruschev

This monarch reigned over
England for 64 years

This bearded Hapsburg was the last Emperor of Austro-Hungarian Empire

This island in the South Atlantic was Napoleon's final prison

His painting "The Kiss" is on view in the Belvedere Castle in Vienna

Her photograph "Breadline Angel" was an icon of the Depression

He painted the cathedral of Rouen in many lights

This cartoonist's
brick-throwing mouse lived in Cocochino

This Florentine artist, regarded by some as the Father of Western Art, decorated the Scrovegni
Chapel in Padua in 1303

This machine used wheels
and a keyboard to encrypt
German secrets in World War Two

Bill Gates bought this operating system and
renamed it MS-DOS

This number stands for the letter A in ASCII code

Financial woes prevented this pioneer's most important calculator from being built

The following statement has meaning to a PostScript interpreter: 2 pop 4 pop 6
pop 8

Who are the Green Bay
Packers

What is Cinncinati

Who is Hank Aaron

Who are the Montreal Canadiens

What is a spinnaker

Who is Val Kilmer

Who is Martin Scorsese

What was "Like Water for Chocolate"

Who was Judy Garland

Who was Frank Mankewizc

Who was Fala

Who was Leonid Bresznev

Who was Queen Victoria

Who was Franz Joseph

What was St. Helena

Who was Gustav Klimt

Who was Dorothea Lange

Who was Claude Monet

Who was George Herriman

Who was Giotto

What was Enigma

What was the Quick and
Dirty Operating System

What is 65

Who was Charles Babbage

What is 8